PREAMBLE

The board of directors of the Company (the “Board” or the “Board of Directors”) is mandated by all of the shareholders and acts in the interests of the Company. It exercises the role and powers granted to it by applicable laws and regulations, as set forth by Articles 15 and 18 of the articles of association of the Company (the “Articles of Association”).

These Board Rules of Procedure apply to all current and future members of the Board (each, a “Director”) and are intended to supplement the legal, regulatory and statutory provisions in order to outline the rules of operation of the Board and its special committees (the “Committees”).

It also sets out the missions and powers of the chairperson of the Board of Directors (Président du Conseil) (the “Chairperson”), the chief executive officer of the Company (Directeur Général) (the “CEO”), and the deputy chief executive officer of the Company (Directeur Général Délégué) (the “Deputy CEO”).

It includes, as Annex 1 hereto, the charter applicable to any Company’s Director (the “Director’s Charter”) setting out the rights and obligations of Directors.

By extension, these Board Rules of Procedure apply to any person who may attend permanently or punctually the Board’s or special Committees’ meetings, including to permanent representative of corporate entity Directors, Directors representing employee shareholders, Directors representing employees.

At its meeting held on March 4, 2009, the Board decided to comply with the “Corporate Governance Code of Listed Corporations” (Code de gouvernement d’entreprise des sociétés cotées) of the AFEP/ MEDEF, as may be amended from time to time (the “AFEP/ MEDEF Code”), which is available on the website of the MEDEF (<http://www.medef.fr>).

These Board Rules of Procedure, which are subject to regular review by the Board, in particular after its self-assessment, are published in whole or partly on the corporate website or reproduced in the universal registration document of the Company.

1. GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1.1 Composition

The composition of the Board is organized as to enable it to fully perform its duties independently and objectively. The Directors, based on their expertise and complementary professional experiences, have a duty to be vigilant and exercise complete freedom of judgment. This freedom of judgment allows them to participate independently in the decisions and work of the Board and, where applicable, its special Committees.

The Board shall regularly consider the desirable balance within its membership and within that of the Committees of the Board, in particular as regards the diversity (representation of women and men, nationalities, international experience, skills, etc.).

1.2 Independence

1.2.1 Definition of an "Independent Director"

The Board shall determine whether a Director is independent, upon recommendation of the Nomination and Compensation Committee.

Director is considered independent when he/ she has no relationship of any kind whatsoever with the Company, its Group¹ or the management that may interfere with his or her freedom of judgement.

The criteria to be reviewed by the Nomination and Compensation Committee and the Board in order for a Director to qualify as independent and to prevent risks of conflicts of interest between the Director and the management, the Company, or the Group, are the following:

1. not to be and not to have been during the course of the previous five years:
 - an employee or executive officer² of the Company;
 - an employee, executive officer or director of a company belonging to the Group (other than a director of the Company, Essilor International (former Delamare Sovra) or Luxottica Group S.p.A.);
2. not to be an executive officer of a company in which the Company holds a directorship, directly or indirectly, or in which an employee or an executive officer of the Company (currently in office or having held such office during the last five years) is a director;
3. not to be a customer, supplier, commercial banker or investment banker (or be linked directly or indirectly to these persons):
 - that is material to the Company or its Group;
 - or for a significant part of whose business the Company or its Group accounts;
4. not to be related by close family ties to a Company's officer;
5. not to have been an auditor of the Company within the previous five years;

² In these Board Rules of Procedure, "executive officer" designates the CEO, and any Deputy CEO when used in reference to the Company or any similar function in companies registered under a different corporate form; "non-executive officer" designates any non-executive Chairperson of the Board; "corporate officers" includes the executive officers, the non-executive officers and the others Board members.

6. not to have been a director of the Company for more than twelve years. Loss of the status of independent director occurs on the date at which this period of twelve years is reached.

The Board of Directors (based on the recommendation of the Nomination and Compensation Committee) may consider that, although a Director meets the criteria set out above, he or she cannot be held to be independent owing to the specific circumstances of the person or the Company, due to its ownership structure or for any other reason. Conversely, the Board may consider that a Director who does not meet these criteria is nevertheless independent.

1.2.2 Independence and capital shareholding

Directors representing major shareholders (either as employees, executive officers or directors of said shareholders) of the Company may be considered as being independent, provided that these shareholders do not take part in the control of the Company.

Nevertheless, beyond a 10% holding of shares or 10% of the voting rights, the Board, upon a report from the Nomination and Compensation Committee, should systematically review the qualification of a Director as independent in the light of the break-down of the Company's capital and the existence of a potential conflict of interest.

The Board should take appropriate action to assure the shareholders and the market that its duties will be performed with the necessary independence and objectivity.

1.3 Conflicts of Interest

Any Director (whether he/ she is an individual Director or a permanent representative of a legal entity holding directorship) of the Company shall consider himself or herself as being bound by the provisions of Article 20 of the AFEP/ MEDEF Code, the Director's Charter included as Annex 1 to these Board Rules of Procedure and the rules set forth in the following paragraphs.

1.3.1 Situations giving rise to Conflict of Interest

Any Director who is directly or indirectly exposed to an actual or potential conflict between his or her interests (or those of the legal entity holding directorship he/ she represents) and those of the Company (or any company of the Group) because of the positions that he/ she holds, and/ or any interests that he/ she has elsewhere (a "Conflict of Interest"), shall inform the Chairperson of the Board with a copy to the secretariat of the Board, and the Chairperson of the relevant Committees, if applicable. When a Director takes office and by January 31 of each year, he/ she shall prepare (and update when needed) and submit to the Chairperson of the Board and to the Nomination and Compensation Committee, a statement indicating any actual or potential Conflict of Interest he/ she may have with any Group's companies.

A Director may be requested by the Chairperson, at any time, to confirm in writing that he or she is not in a Conflict of Interest situation. Pursuant to Section 3.5 below, Directors and any other persons who attend Board meetings shall be required to treat all information provided during these meetings as strictly confidential.

1.3.2 Guidelines for dealing with Conflicts of Interest

In the event of a Conflict of Interests, the concerned Director shall (i) prior to the concerned meeting, inform in due time the Chairperson with a copy to the secretariat of the Board, and (ii) shall not attend the Board (or Committee) meeting during the discussions and debates on the concerned items of the agenda and shall not vote on the concerned deliberations.

It is specified that if the concerned Director is the Chairperson of a Committee and the concerned meeting is one of such Committee, then, such Director shall notify his or her Conflict of Interest situation to the other Committee's members and shall not attend the meeting during the discussions and debates on the concerned items of the agenda and shall not vote on the concerned deliberations.

Any issues concerning the implementation of this Section "Conflicts of interest" shall be submitted to the Chairperson with a copy to the secretariat of the Board, and for Committee meeting, the Chairperson of the relevant Committee. If an issue relating to any concerned Director cannot be resolved following discussions between them, then, the Board (or the Committee) shall make a decision.

1.3.3 Sensitive information as defined in competition law

In the event of a Conflict of Interest relating to a position or interest in an entity whose interests compete with those of the Group, no sensitive information, as defined in competition law, may be disclosed or discussed in the presence of the concerned Director.

The definition of sensitive information in competition law covers all information not in the public domain that could enable the concerned Director to understand or influence the Company's commercial and other strategies in markets served by the entity whose interests compete with those of the Company and with which the concerned Director has ties, including, without limitations, recent, current or future pricing strategies and prices (including discounts or rebates), detailed information concerning technology and R&D projects, recent current or future profit margins on, or profitability targets for, specific products or services, and current or future strategic plans, business development projects, particularly planned potential mergers and acquisitions, market shares, market analyses, covering inter alia forecast changes in offer and/ or demand and prices.

The risk of an exchange of sensitive information as defined in competition law is equivalent in all respects to a conflict of interest within the meaning of this Section "Conflicts of interest".

2. THE MANAGEMENT

2.1 Forms of General Management

The management of the Company is assumed either by the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, then carrying the title of Chairperson and CEO (Président-Directeur Général) or by another natural person appointed by the Board of Directors and carrying the title of Chief Executive Officer (Directeur Général), depending on the decision of the Board of Directors, which must choose between these two options.

When the management of the Company is assumed by the Chairperson of the Board, the following provisions relating to the CEO shall apply to him/her.

2.2 CEO and Deputy CEO

The CEO exercises the powers of decision, management, representation and communication of the Company with respect to third parties. The CEO proposes to the Board of Directors the strategy of the Company.

The CEO is vested with the most extensive powers to act in all circumstances in the name of the Company. The CEO shall exercise those powers within the limits of the corporate purpose and subject to the powers expressly granted to the Shareholders' Meetings and to the Board of Directors by law as well as to the limitations set forth by the Articles of Association and by these Board Rules of Procedure.

With regard to third parties, the CEO represents the Company and the Company shall be bound by all the actions taken by the CEO, even those that fall outside the scope of its corporate purpose, unless it proves that the third party knew that such action exceeded the corporate purpose or that it could not have been unaware of it given the circumstances, it being understood that the mere publication of the Articles of Association shall not be sufficient to constitute such a proof.

Upon proposal of the CEO, the Board of Directors may appoint one or more natural persons to assist the CEO, with the title of Deputy CEO.

In agreement with the CEO, the Board determines the scope and duration of the powers granted to the Deputy CEO (s). It should be noted that the law grants any Deputy CEO the same powers vis-à-vis third parties as the CEO and that the Deputy CEO may only be dismissed by the Board upon the proposal of the CEO.

In case of appointment of several Deputy CEOs (Directeurs Généraux Délégués), Sections of the Board Rules of Procedure applicable to the Deputy CEO will apply mutatis mutandi to them.

3. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

3.1 The Chairperson

In accordance with the Articles of Association and upon decision of the Board of Directors, the Chairperson may serve concurrently as CEO. In case these functions are dissociated, the Chairperson shall ensure that a constant relationship of trust is developed and maintained between the Board and the management, in order to guarantee the permanence and stability of the implementation by the management of the guidelines determined by the Board.

The Chairperson of the Board organizes and directs the work and meetings of the Board, on which he or she reports to the Shareholders' General Meeting. In this capacity, he or she convenes and sets the agenda for Board meetings, leads and chairs the debates and may request any document or information that may be relevant to the Board of Directors in preparing its meetings.

He or she ensures the smooth functioning of the Board of Directors and, in particular, that the Directors are able to fulfil their missions.

He or she provides input on strategic issues for the Company and undertakes best efforts to promote the Group's culture and values and to facilitate the transition of the management team. In this capacity, the Chairperson of the Board (at the request of the CEO and/or the Deputy CEO in the event of dissociation of functions) may represent the Company in its high-level relations with the organizations, institutions and public authorities, as well as with suppliers, customers and other stakeholders, both on a national and international level.

He or she may also, without prejudice to the powers of the Board of Directors and its Committees, be regularly consulted by the CEO and/or the Deputy CEO on all significant events concerning the Company's strategy within the framework of the guidelines set by the Board of Directors, external growth projects, major financial transactions or the appointment of executives to key positions in the Company or the Group. In all these specific missions, the Chairperson of the Board will act in close coordination with the CEO, who is responsible for the direction and operational management of the Company, and the Deputy CEO.

The Chairperson of the Board is provided with the material resources necessary to carry out his/her duties. He or she may also receive compensation for his/her duties as Chairperson of the Board of Directors. If deemed necessary, the Board of Directors may appoint a Vice-Chairperson from among its members, who shall chair the meetings of the Board of Directors if the Chairperson is absent.

In addition, in accordance with Article 23 of the Articles of Association, the Chairperson of the Board (or, in his absence, the Vice- Chairperson if a Vice- Chairperson has been appointed) shall organize and chair the shareholders' general meetings.

3.2 Powers of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors directs the Company's business and oversees its implementation in accordance with its corporate interest, taking into account the social and environmental stakes of its activity. 3.3 Convening a Board Meeting

The Board will meet as often as necessary in the interests of the Company, but at least 5 times per year.

The Board is convened by the Chairperson.

If it has not met for a period of more than two months, a minimum of a third of the members of the Board of Directors may request the Chairperson to convene a meeting to discuss a specific agenda.

The convening period for the Board of Directors shall be seven calendar days, unless urgency requires otherwise. If this is the case, the notice of meeting may be sent at any time. In any event, the Board of Directors may validly deliberate even in the absence of a notice of meeting if all its members are present or represented.

Meetings are held at any place specified in the notice of meeting. In the event that no place is specified, the meeting shall be held at the headquarters of the Company.

The notice of meeting shall be given in English and in French, and an Italian courtesy translation can also be provided at the request of any Director.

3.4 Information for Directors

Any documentation required to ensure that the Directors are informed about the agenda and any items to be discussed by the Board will either be enclosed with the notice of meeting or sent or delivered or uploaded on a dedicated platform at the latest five days before the meeting/in due time. In case of discrepancy between the English version and one of its translations, the English version shall prevail, except for those documents whose official language is French pursuant to applicable law.

To be prepared for decisions to be made, Directors must check that the information they deem necessary for the proper flow of the Board's or special Committee's work has been made available to them. If any information has not been made available, or has not properly been made available in a Director's opinion, such Director must request it. Such requests should be addressed to the Chairperson with copy to the secretariat of the Board who must ensure that the Directors are in a position to fulfil their duties.

In addition, Directors will receive between meetings any useful or critical information on significant events or operations relating to the Company or the Group, in particular, press communications released or financial reports made by the Company.

Any Director may avail himself or herself of supplementary training on the specific concerns of the Company, its industry or business sectors as well as on social and environmental responsibility aspects, including with respect to climate related issues, if he or she deems it necessary. From the time of their appointment, members of the Audit and Risk Committee will receive information on the Company's accounting, financial and operational affairs.

Director(s) representing employees or Director(s) representing employee shareholders (if applicable) should be provided with suitable training enabling them to perform their duties, in accordance with regulations.

Upon appointment of a new Director, he or she will be provided with a file including the Articles of Association, these Board Rules of Procedure (including the Director's Charter) and a memorandum on stock trading restrictions.

3.5 Directors' Duties

Before accepting his/her duties, each Director shall ensure that he or she is aware of and complies with the general and specific obligations relating to his/her duties. In particular, he or she must be aware of the applicable laws and regulations, the Company's Articles of Association, these Board Rules of Procedure and the Director's Charter.

Directors are bound by a duty of discretion and confidentiality in the interest of the Company. Any information or documentation obtained by/or provided to any Director in the context of his or her directorship or membership of a special Committee (or to any other person who may attend a Board or Committee meeting) shall be subject to the duty of confidentiality that is binding on each Director.

The duty of confidentiality shall also be binding on any person who may attend permanently or occasionally the Board or special Committees meetings of the Company.

With regard to any non-public information obtained in the discharge of his or her duties, each Director (or any person who may attend the Board or special Committees meetings) shall consider that he or she is bound by a strict duty of confidentiality that goes beyond the mere duty of discretion provided for by law.

3.6 Organization of Meetings

3.6.1 Attendance

The meetings of the Board of Directors are chaired by the Chairperson, or, in the absence of the Chairperson, by the Vice-Chairperson (if any), or in the absence of the Vice-Chairperson, by the person appointed by the Board to chair the meeting.

Directors may choose to be represented by another Director at meetings of the Board of Directors. Each Director may represent no more than one other Director at any Board meeting.

Meetings are held in English, with simultaneous translation in French or Italian provided by a translator/interpreter at the request of any Board member. In case of discrepancy between the English version and one of its translations, the English version shall prevail.

3.6.2 Deliberations

The quorum for any decision taken by the Board of Directors shall be at least half of the Directors present (in person or, as the case may be, by videoconference or telecommunication means).

The decisions shall be taken by a simple majority of the members present or represented.

Directors participating in meetings of the Board of Directors by any means of videoconference or telecommunication allowing them to be identified and guaranteeing their effective participation are deemed present for the purposes of quorum and majority computation under the conditions set forth by applicable regulation and by Article 3.7. below.

Decisions falling within the scope of the Board of Directors' own powers, for which this option is available under article L. 225-37 of the French Commercial Code, may be taken by written consultation of the members of the Board of Directors. In the event of a written consultation, such consultation may be initiated only by the Chairperson, who shall communicate by any means to all members of the Board of Directors the agenda for the consultation and the text of the proposed deliberations.

Directors have a period of eight (8) days from the communication of the agenda to cast their vote, which may be cast by any written means, and to communicate their vote to the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, with a copy to the secretariat of the Board. Failure to reply within the aforementioned time limit is equivalent to a negative vote.

The Board of Directors may not validly deliberate by written consultation unless at least half of the members of the Board of Directors have cast their vote on this occasion. The decisions of the Board of Directors are taken by a majority of the voting members.

The above-mentioned provisions shall apply without prejudice to the rules applicable to related-party agreements (conventions réglementées), situations of conflicts of interest and any other situations where a Director would be prevented to vote under applicable Law.

3.7 Attendance by Means of Videoconference or Telecommunication

The Directors may attend Board meetings by means of videoconference or telecommunication in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

The Chairperson of the Board shall ensure that these means allow the identification of the members of the Board of Directors and guarantee their effective participation in the Board meeting, whose deliberations shall be retransmitted continuously.

In accordance with applicable laws and regulations and as provided for by Article 16, 2) of the Articles of Association, Directors attending Board meetings by means of videoconference or telecommunication will be recorded as present for the purpose of establishing a quorum or a majority.

However, these forms of attendance are not permissible when the Board deliberates on the approval of the Company's financial statements and consolidated statements, unless the Board is permitted to do so under applicable laws.

3.8 Minutes

The draft minutes of the previous Board meeting will be sent or delivered to all Directors at the latest on the day of the notice of the next meeting.

The minutes of the Board are approved by the Board of Directors and duly signed by the Chairperson.

Minutes shall be drafted in French, with an English courtesy translation, and an Italian courtesy translation shall be prepared for Directors' review at the request of any Director.

The minutes of the discussion will also mention the attendance of Directors by videoconferencing or telecommunication means. They will also record the occurrence of any technical incidents in the videoconference or telecommunication, if they disrupted the session.

The attendance register, signed by the members of the Board participating to the meeting, shall mention the names of the Directors attending the Board meeting by videoconference or telecommunication who are deemed present.

The secretariat of the Board of Directors shall be authorized to certify copies of and extracts from minutes of Board meetings as a true record.

4. SPECIAL COMMITTEES

❖ Three permanent special committees

When proposed by the Nomination and Compensation Committee, the Board may create special committees (the “Committees”) and decide on their composition and duties. These Committees act within the framework delegated to them by the Board and submit their opinions and proposals to the Board. The Committees do not act in the place of the Board, but rather as an extension of the Board, facilitating its work.

In any event, the Company has three permanent Director Committees:

1. Audit and Risk Committee;
2. Nomination and Compensation Committee; and
3. Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Committee.

With respect to any committee:

- (i) the agenda of each meeting is sent to the relevant Committee members before the meeting, together with any information or documentation that is useful for the discussion;
- (ii) any information and documentation for the discussions will be available on a secure platform or sent by electronic means;
- (iii) any such documentation shall be generally drafted in English and in French, and an Italian courtesy translation can also be provided at the request of any member;

- (v) minutes and reports (if any) shall be drafted in French with an English courtesy translation, and an Italian courtesy translation shall be prepared at the request of any Committee member.

Whenever the agenda of a meeting of a Committee includes some items overlapping the competence of another Committee (as provided herein), the Chairperson of the first Committee liaises with the Chairperson of the second to ensure a coordination.

❖ Membership of the Committees

The Committees are composed exclusively of Directors and each shall comprise at least three members. Committee members cease to be members of the Committee as of the date of termination of their directorship for any reason whatsoever.

Each Committee shall be chaired by a Director appointed by the Board of Directors (the “Chairperson of the Committee”).

❖ Work organization

The Committees’ meetings shall be held at the registered office or at any other place decided by the Chairperson of the Committee, it being specified that, at the discretion of the Chairperson of the Committee, the Committees may be held by videoconference or telecommunication.

Members of Committees may choose to be represented by another member at meetings of the Committee. Each member may represent no more than one other member at any Committee meeting.

The deliberations of the Committees shall be valid only if at least half of their members are present or represented.

Decisions shall be made based upon a majority vote of the members present or represented. If vote is tied then the Chairperson of the Committee shall have a casting vote.

❖ Attendance by videoconference

In accordance with applicable law and regulations, the Committee members may attend the meetings by means of videoconference or telecommunication.

The technical properties of the means used for the videoconferencing or telecommunication must permit the continuous and simultaneous retransmission of the discussions.
